

William B. Lewis, MD

Otolaryngology

Dr. William Lewis is a fellowship trained otologist. His areas of surgical expertise and interests include surgery for chronic ear infections, hearing restoration surgery (including implantable hearing devices), thyroid surgery, and endoscopic sinus surgery.

Dr. Lewis is an avid swimmer, triathlete, and skier, and has been a partner at Summit ENT since 2002.

ADDITIONAL LANGUAGES SPOKEN

French, Spanish

EDUCATION & TRAINING

- State University of New York, Syracuse, NY, Medical Degree
- University of Rochester School of Medicine, Residency; Otolaryngology
- Florida Ear and Sinus Center, Fellowship